

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE.

VOL. L. NO. 2.

CAMDEN, TENNESSEE.

JANUARY 8, 1915

Little Locals.

LAST WEEK.

Mrs. Vera Jones of Nashville visited here Tuesday.

Miss Angie Steele of Nashville is here with homefolks.

Wendell Hubbs of Charleston, Mo., returned home Monday.

Bob Davis of Nashville spent Sunday here with homefolks.

Dr. L. D. Dougherty, the dentist, spent Christmas in Nashville.

Mrs. Pearl Williams is visiting Mrs. A. P. Lashlee at Bethlehem.

John Askew has been elected Justice of the Peace in the ninth district.

Circuit Clerk G. B. Holladay was on Eagle Creek the first of the week.

John B. Anderson of Memphis joined his family here through Christmas.

Mrs. Allene Galbreath of Nashville is visiting in the Liberty community.

Attorney Sidney L. Peeler was in Memphis Wednesday taking depositions.

Alvin Lashlee and family of Nashville spent Christmas here with relatives.

J. W. Capps closed his school in the eighth district and returned home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Townsend of Kenton spent Christmas here with homefolks.

Clarence Bateman of Memphis and Lanier Parnell of Nashville were here Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Utley and daughter, Miss Blanche, have been visiting relatives at Westport.

Miss Minnie Goodwin has returned from a visit to relatives in Humphreys County.

Tim Smith of Johnson City is visiting his grandparents, Captain and Mrs. W. F. Maiden.

Mrs. Madge Smith of Clinton, Ky., is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Jordan.

Turman Lashlee of Dickson is visiting his aunts, Miss Minnie Lashlee and Mrs. W. A. Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Woods have returned from Holladay, where they have been teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bowles are spending a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alma Fry, of Coxburg.

Misses Lela and Nannie Lou McKibbin and Malissa Welch of Columbia have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Zana Bradley.

Newt Howe died at his home in the fourteenth district about eight miles south of Camden Wednesday of dropsy, aged 67 years. He was well known to the older citizens here, where he had many friends. The Howe family has a large connection in the southern portion of the county, and deceased is survived by his widow and children.

Relatives here have been advised of the marriage of Augustus Vick at Dallas, Tex., December 16, the bride being Miss Aurela Mayer of that city. Mr. Vick is well known here, being a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian Vick, who reside a few miles northeast of Camden, and has many friends who wish him well. The Chronicle wishes for them many happy returns of their wedding anniversary.

On the eve of his departure for Nashville to participate in the work of the General Assembly, Hon. Blake Pafford of Flatwoods and Miss Rachel Phifer were married at the home of the bride's parents in the seventh district. The bride is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fate Phifer, while Mr. Pafford is the son of Uncle Tom Pafford. The Chronicle extends congratulations and best wishes.

Big Sandy Lodge F. and A. M. has elected J. H. Hastings, worshipful master; Victor F. Robins, senior warden; Newton T. Bowles, junior warden; Tom B. Cantrell, treasurer; Leon Caraway, secretary; J. F. Dowdy, chaplain; Dr. Earle Goyer, senior deacon; W. S. Rayborn, junior deacon; E. Highfill, tyler; R. D. Stagner and Marion L. Lindsey, stewards; Rev. W. W. Henley, J. W. Brumager and W. B. Akers, standing committee.

At a recent meeting of the Baptist State Convention at Jackson a resolution was adopted authorizing the education board to begin at once a whirlwind campaign for raising funds to pay off the present debt resting upon Tennessee College at Murfreesboro. The sum required is $29,000.

The railroads are offering a rate of one fare for the round trip to Knoxville on account of the short course in agriculture, live stock, dairying, fruit and truck growing and rural engineering to be held at the University of Tennessee from January 4 to February 27. The short course is free, and the wide-awake farmer can add to his store of useful knowledge by taking it.

Mrs. Davidson, the wife of Wylly Davidson, died at their home near Way Dec. 27. She had been in bad health for some time, and her death was not unexpected. Mrs. Davidson was a member of the M. E. Church, South, and was highly esteemed for her Christian piety and kind amiable disposition. Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. W. W. Henley, and the interment took place at Flatwoods Cemetery. She is survived by her husband and twin children.

After service in the army of Uncle Sam, from which he was discharged recently on account of an accident which rendered his hand useless, Cagy Bevil returned to his home near Big Sandy during the holidays and was promptly arrested on a warrant charging him with an attempt to commit murder. It will be remembered that Bevil fled the county over a year ago after, it is alleged, he shot into the residence of his father-in-law, S. L. Dyar, who swore out the warrant for him.

PRAYER SERVICE.

The subject for prayer service at the M. E. Church, South, Tuesday evening, January 12, is "Duties to God" continued. (Prayer.)
